

Most young Syrian refugees lived in big cities before the outbreak of the war

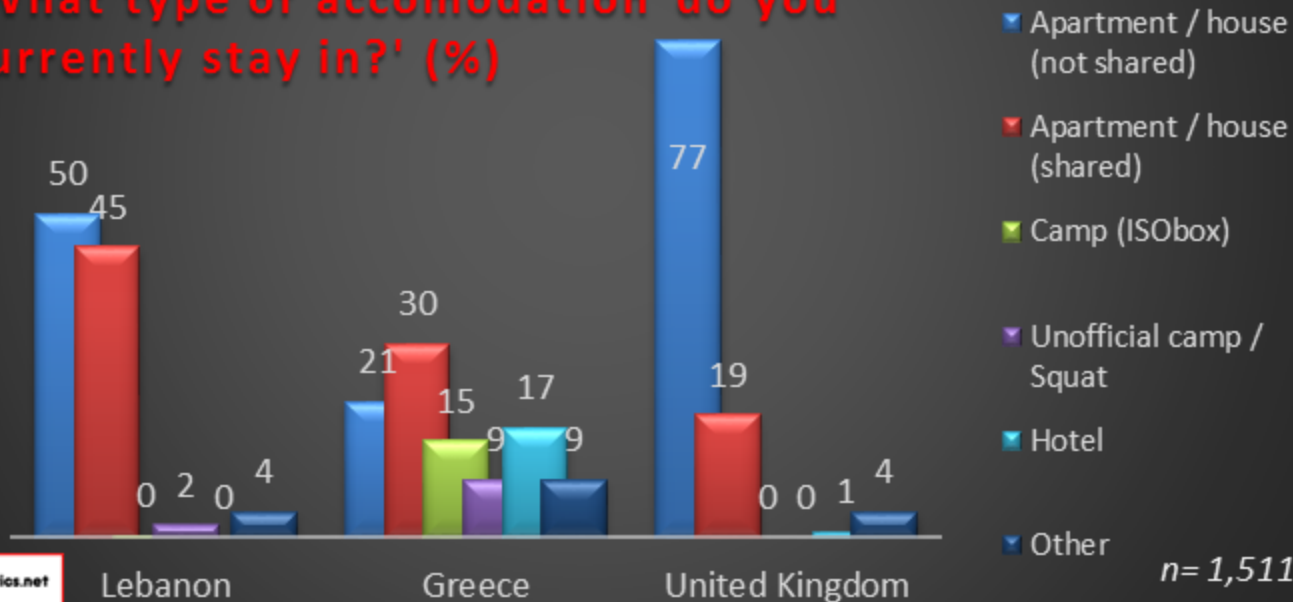

Where did you live in Syria? (%)

n = 1,511

Refugees in Britain are more likely to live in their own apartment, while those in Lebanon live in shared houses as well as their own houses. Those in Greece are spread much more across a variety of housing tenure.

'What type of accomodation do you currently stay in?' (%)

n = 1,511

Refugees in Lebanon have to pay their own rent, those in Greece are supported by NGOs, while those in Britain are supported by the state

Who pays the rent? (%)

